

Persuasive Writing Structure Warm-up

- 1) Look through your notes you gathered researching these past few days.
- 2) Find and highlight or star the STRONGEST argument you found in your support of your view on the topic. Write this down here:

- 3) Argue your point using pathos, logos, and ethos, using your research as a helpful reference. Pathos=emotional appeal. Logos=facts/evidence/research/logic. Ethos=expert information/ opinion/ quotation.

Pathos:

Logos:

Ethos:

- 4) Find and highlight or star one of the OPPOSING side's arguments that go against your view of thinking. Write this down here:

5) Then, write about how this opposing side is faulty, and how you can smash ‘em down and prove ‘em wrong! Use at least two facts and pieces of information from your research to guide this and write this down below:

Point #1:

Point #2:

Point #3 (optional):