

Brainstorming Outline for Argumentative Research Topic

Directions: Choose a of your choice topics to complete preliminary brainstorming for your research essay. For subpoints other than those listed "list," please write 2-3 complete sentences responding to the topic.

1. Topic #1 (list):
2. Why is this a hot topic in society today? (Why are people talking about it and why is it even an issue?)
3. How do I personally feel about this topic? Why is it meaningful to me?
4. What is one major argument in support of my view on this topic? Why is it a valid point?
5. What is a second major argument in support of my view on this topic? Why is it a valid point?

6. What do opponents have to say about this topic? What are two reasons they feel this way, and why are both of these reasons weak?

7. What should I or other people around me do to promote my view on this topic?

