

[D+ / C- range]

Mrs. Dewey

English 1, Period 4A

7 January 2016

Amazing Imagery

the author uses imagery, not Lily.

Rephrase for final draft

In the novel The Secret Life of Bees by Sue Monk Kidd, the author presents varying moods throughout the story for a variety of purposes. In chapter three Lily used imagery to look at the nature around her. Lily looks at the river after she woke up, "A barge of mist floated along the not the purpose I am looking for.

water, and dragonflies, iridescent blue ones, darted back and forth like they were stitching up the air" (57). Lily used her sight to tell the readers that she loves Mother Nature so much. Lily finally gets to open her eyes to Mother Nature because she ran away from T-Ray. Later in chapter three,

The purpose is to shape a particular mood. Use your "Questions to Prompt" to help.

seems out of place, and could be used in CM.

Lily is walking with Rosaleen on the countryside and she just listens to her footsteps in the gravel. Lily likes to be alone and listen to herself, "I listened to the sound it made seraping under our shoes" (59). Lily likes to be alone so she can listen to Mother Nature. Lily is also happy because she feels free when she can hear the gravel underneath her and she is away from T-Ray.

Significantly more CM needed.

Lily uses imagery to tell the readers what she sees and hears around her. Lily is happy and free because she is away from her dad that is always yelling at her. Sue Monk Kidd also uses imagery to tell the reader how Lily feels.

true, but this states the obvious.

states the obvious.

This idea can be developed into a sentence of its own.

- ⊕ Focused on novel content + one device throughout
- ⊕ Ideas are consistent
- ⊖ Your ideas, especially in CM, do not go beyond stating the obvious.
- ⊖ Focus on what the author does to shape the calm mood. (Use your "Questions to Prompt" worksheet to help).
- ⊖ Significantly more development needed to better overall grade